'American spirit' in song

Maestro Aaron and his 60-piece Klezmer Company Orchestra will perform the "Spirit of America: American Masters of Song and Dance" concert at 3 p.m. on June 26 at the Carole and Barry Kaye Performing Arts Auditorium on Florida Atlantic University's Boca Raton campus.

The classic American music will be a blend of jazz and folk songs written between 1932 and 1945 by such composers as Aaron Copland, Duke Ellington, George Gershwin and Glenn Miller.

Tenor Daniel Cochran of the Ebony Chorus of the Palm Beaches will sing "Candy" and "There Goes that Song Again."

Lisanne Lyons, a jazz singer, recording artist and professor of vocal jazz studies at the University of Miami, will sing Ellington's "It Don't Mean a Thing" and "Take the A Train."

The Klezmer Company Orchestra will also perform Copland's "Appalachian Spring," "Every Time I Feel the Spirit" and Irving Berlin's "God Bless America."

Concert tickets are priced from $17 to $38 and can be purchased by
